Elizabethtown Gas Announces Inaugural Game On Grant Program to Support Local Recreational Programs

UNION, N.J., February 23, 2021 – Elizabethtown Gas, a subsidiary of South Jersey Industries, Inc. (NYSE: SJI), today announced the kick-off of its inaugural Game On Grant Program providing twenty $1,000 grants to recreational organizations in its service territory, serving children ages four to eighteen.

The grants provide critical support needed to sustain local, community-centered athletic programs, leagues, clubs, associations and recreational organizations for children. To qualify, recreational services must be coordinated primarily through volunteer efforts and the grant must support a traditional youth sport including, but not limited to baseball, softball, soccer, football, basketball, wrestling, cheerleading, volleyball, tennis, lacrosse, golf, field hockey, hockey and swimming.

For additional information and to apply, visit elizabethtowngas.com/community. All entries must be received by Elizabethtown Gas no later than Friday, March 12, 2021.
